FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1867.

A gentleman writing to us from

Selma in Alabama says:

My notions are that the people South should be left to their own devices, and not be interfered with by the people of the North. I am not a secessionist, but I am a seceder.

I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder.

I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but

I am a seceder. I am not a seceder,

but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder.

I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but

I am a seceder. I am not a seceder,

but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder.

I am not a seceder, but I am a seceder. I am not a seceder, but

I am a seceder. I am not a seceder,
